GOVERNMENT PERFORMANCE AND RESULTS ACT (GPRA)

What are the GPRAs?

- Congress established GPRAs in 1993 to improve government performance management.
- Grades, State Assessments, and Teacher-Reported improvements are used to answer the GPRA indicators for 21st CCLC programs.

21APR

All data collected in 21APR informs performance according to the GPRAs in order for the US Department of Education to report to Congress.

21APR DATA GUIDE

What is the 21APR Data Guide?

- 21APR Data Guide is a user-friendly resource with expanded information on each data element in the federal data collection system for 21st CCLC.
- Its purpose is to assist those responsible for data entry at the State and Grantee level. It provides guidance on the data elements and definitions for non-technical users.

21APR DATA DICTIONARY

What is the Data Dictionary?

The Data Dictionary is a technical document for technical users, particularly those working with other data systems or investigating how to best gather data at the state level.
